Kellogg Supply Company offers the following optional enhanced services to our accounts receivable (A/R) customers upon request:

1. Choose to have invoices emailed to your home or office within minutes of each new transaction.
2. Have monthly Statements e-mailed to your home or office immediately upon monthly account closing.
3. Obtain 24/7 Internet access to your account information with re-printable invoice and statement detail via our iNET online software application. Easily view current account balances and payment history.

These enhancements improve our ability to maintain our A/R, while offering our customers significant improvements with regards to invoice accuracy as well as prompt invoice and statement delivery. Thus, allowing our customers more time to review and organize their monthly billing.

To request any of these optional services, please complete the form below and return via fax to 252-473-5870

Thank you,
